Ethiopian-Canadian Solace Society (Idir) in Edmonton

Bylaw

December 2016

ARTICLE I Membership

Section 1. Requirements for Membership

- 1.1. Any Ethiopian, Ethiopian-Canadian, Canadian of Ethiopian heritage and their spouses may become a member of the Ethiopian-Canadian Solace Society (Idir) in Edmonton provided that he or she:
 - a) Made a written application for membership therein;
 - b) Agree with the terms and conditions of the Membership Agreement;
 - c) have been approved by a majority vote of the Society's Board (hereafter the Board) if joining after the formation of the Society;
 - d) Agreed to comply with and be bound by the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaw of the Society and any policies, rules and regulations adopted by the Board or a general meeting of the Society , and
 - e) Paid the membership fees herein specified.
 - f) Must be living in Edmonton and environs at the time of joining the Society.
- 1.2. No membership in the Society shall be transferable, except as provided in this bylaw.

Section 2. Membership

- 2.1. Members in the Society shall be evidenced by a membership certificate which shall be in such form and shall contain such provisions as shall be determined by the Board. Such certificate shall be signed by the President and by the Secretary of the Society and the Society seal shall be affixed thereto.
- 2.2. No membership certificate shall be issued until a membership registration fee has been fully paid. In case a certificate is lost, destroyed or mutilated, the Board will issue a new certificate automatically for any member in good standing.
- 2.3. There will be one membership per family. The membership certificate shall contain the names of all the family members. Children up to the age of 18 or if in school up to the age of 22 are considered part of a family.
 - 2.3.1. A family may include a couple or a single mother or a single father and their children (whether the children are biological or adopted), nieces, nephews, or anyone up to the age of 18 (or 22 if in school) living with the family on a regular basis. A couple living in a common law relationship are considered a family as long as they live in the same house.

- 2.4. Children above the age of 22 shall, if they wish, become members of the Society on their own whether or not they live with their parents.
- 2.5. Application forms shall be filled out accurately and fully; failure of doing so shall lead to termination of membership without any compensation or reimbursement of registration or monthly payments.
- 2.6. New information such as change in marital status and number of children shall be updated. Failure to do so could result in a loss of eligibility for otherwise applicable benefits.
- 2.7. Members may maintain their membership during a period of a temporary (up to a period of a year) relocation of residence as long as they pay their monthly dues on time.
- 2.8. The Society shall hold a send-off coffee/tea party for a permanently departing member who has been in good standing for at least three years unless the departing member declines the offer. The expense for the send-off party shall not exceed $250.
- 2.9. In cases of a divorce, husband and wife shall apply for separate membership. If children are involved, custody arrangements shall be explicitly stated in their separate applications. No registration fee shall be required in such a situation.

Section 3. Membership Fee and other obligations

The membership fee shall have two components as described herein:

- 3.1. Each member shall pay a lump sum one time registration fee of $100 (family) or $50 (single) upon joining the Society.
- 3.2. Registration fees shall be made by cash, cheque or money order. Members can also arrange for a bank transfer to the Society's bank account.
- 3.3. Each member shall pay a monthly fee of $10 (single) or $20 (family) per month as membership fees.
- 3.4. Monthly payments shall be received by the Board by the first Saturday of each month before 6 PM. Post-dated cheques shall be dated for the first day of each month as should bank transfer be arranged to occur on the first day of each month.
- 3.5. Post-dated cheques and bank-to-bank transfers shall only take normal length of time to clear as recognized and accepted as normal by financial institutions. Bounced cheques or incomplete money transfers due to insufficient funds shall be considered failure to pay monthly fees on time and shall be subject to the provisions stated below.
- 3.7. Failing to pay the monthly fee may result in the termination of the membership status in the Society.
 - 3.7.1. When a member fails to pay his or her monthly fees for the first time as determined in 3.3 above, the Board shall serve him or her notice of failure to pay the monthly fee within a week by e-mail, text, or phone. The Board shall keep record of the notice for future reference if necessary.

- 3.7.2. If, following receipt of the Board's notice, a monthly fee is paid within the same month, further action shall not be taken and the membership status of the member in question will remain intact.
 - 3.7.3. If a monthly fee is not paid within a month, the membership status of the member in question shall be suspended automatically and communicated to the member. During the suspension period, the member in question will not be eligible to the benefits accorded members in good standing. The Board shall keep record of the notice for future reference if necessary.
 - 3.7.4. If, following receipt of the Board's notice of suspension of membership, the member in question pays their monthly dues for both months within the month of the notice of suspension, the membership status of the member in question will be reinstated.
 - 3.7.5. If a member fails to pay their monthly fee on time for three consecutive months, their membership shall be terminated with no compensation or reimbursement of the registration or monthly fees they paid to that point in time. The Board shall serve a notice of termination to such member within a week of the termination. The Board shall keep record of the notice for future reference if necessary.
 - 3.7.6. If a member fails to pay their monthly fee on time for a second time within a period of a year, the member shall be served a warning notice that they will face termination of membership the third time they fail to pay their monthly fee on time. The Board can waive the warning if the member in question provided verifiable and legitimate reason(s) for the failure.
 - 3.7.7. Any member that failed to pay their monthly fee on time three times within a period of a year shall be terminated from membership with no compensation or reimbursement of the registration or monthly fees they paid to that point in time. The Board shall serve a notice of termination to such a member within a week of the termination. The Board shall keep record of the notice for future reference if necessary.
 - 3.7.8. A terminated member may reapply to join the Society at which point a new registration fee shall apply.
- 3.8. Every member is expected to attend a funeral and burial services notified by the Society. Every member is also expected to reach out and express condolences to mourning families including by visiting the family at their residence if the Society in consultation with the family in question deems it necessary and communicates the same to all members.

Section 4. Termination of Membership

- 4.1. Any member may withdraw from the Society upon compliance with such uniform terms and conditions as the Board may prescribe. Any Society asset(s) under the custody of the respective member shall be returned to the Society before a withdrawal of membership is accepted by the Board.
- 4.2. In addition to 3.7.5 and 3.7.7, the Board may, by the affirmative vote of not less than two -thirds of all its members, expel any member who fails to comply with any of the provisions of the Article of Incorporation, Bylaw, or policies adopted by the Board.

- 4.3. Before such member is expelled for reasons other than described under 3.7.5 and 3.7.7, i) the Board shall give him or her written notice that such failure makes him or her liable for expulsion; ii) except as in 3.7.5 and 3.7.7., such failure shall have continued for at least (10) days after written notice was given; and (iii) an opportunity for a hearing before the Board has been conducted.
- 4.4. Upon the withdrawal or expulsion of a member, the membership of such member shall thereupon terminate.
- 4.5. In case of withdrawal or termination of membership in any manner, the Society will not repay the member any amount of the registration or the monthly fee paid by him or her.

ARTICLE II Rights and Liabilities of Members

Section 5. Members Rights

- 5.1. All members who are in good standing are eligible to all the benefits determined below.
 - 5.1.1. A deceased family member has the right to be buried at a burial site the Society may own in the future. The general membership, upon recommendation by the Board, will determine the charge, if any, for burying a deceased family member on the Society's burial site.
 - 5.1.2. If a family member as defined in this bylaw passes away, the surviving family members shall receive $5000 to cover funeral, burial and other related costs. This amount is subject to change depending on the Society's financial status. Any such change will be determined by the Board and ratified by the general membership at the earliest possible time.
 - 5.1.3. In the case of no surviving family member, the $5000 shall be given to a close relative as verified by the Board.
 - 5.1.4. It is up to the surviving family member or close relative determined in 5.1.3 above to use the $5000 consolation benefit as they see fit.
 - 5.1.5. The Society is not liable to funeral or related costs that may not be covered by the $5000 consolation benefit.
 - 5.1.6. There are no limitations to the number of times a member will receive consolation benefits from the Society as long as the member remains in good standing.
 - 5.1.7. Consolation benefits may be claimed any time within a year they were due. Society members may choose to donate all or any portion of the consolation benefit to any charity of their choice or donate it to the Society itself.

- 5.1.8. The Society through the Board and working with the Ethiopian-Canadian Community Association (ECCA) will offer surviving family members any logistical assistance in the arrangement of funeral, memorial, and burial services.
- 5.1.9. After consulting with surviving members, the Society may inform its members to pay visitation to mourning family members at their residence. The Society shall commit $500 to cover food and non-alcoholic beverage expenses during the three day mourning period when Society members visit the family.

Section 6. Non-liability for Debts of the Society

- 6.1. The Society shall have limited liability in that members individually or collectively shall not be held accountable to the liabilities of the Society. The Society shall as an independent legal entity take responsibility for its liabilities.
- 6.2. The Society shall not be held responsible for the liabilities its individual members may incur on their own. However, the Society shall be liable to any liability that may result from the decisions and actions of its Board members in the course of the conducting of the Society's legitimate business according to the provisions contained in this bylaw and/or the policies the Board may adopt and ratify by the general membership.
- 6.3. Society liabilities may include:
 - a) contractual obligations with a third party entered by the Board in good faith and in accordance to relevant provisions in this bylaw and/or the policies the Board may adopt;
 - b) Outstanding utility bills
 - c) Mortgage or any a loan secured from a financial institution toward the purchase of a burial site.
 - d) Any other legitimate liability that has been proposed by the Board and duly ratified by the general membership.
